

I am writing to express my sincere concern over Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air a blatantly partisan documentary criticizing Democratic presidential candidate John Kerry two weeks before the election.

As a taxpayer, I help fund maintenance of the public airwaves Sinclair is using. Airing a 'documentary' designed to further a particular political agenda does not serve the "public interest". If anything it's undemocratic. If you need a reminder, look at how the media operates in Russia, where pro-government programming dominates the airwaves.

Sinclair's action must be taken into consideration when considering their license renewal.
